#424 | 100 x 100 cm | mixed media on linen

Being in a state of flow, transcends a feeling beyond time and space, every streak of color or kindled shape arise out of an intrinsic desire to draw and paint. Inspired by nature and meditation the paintings of Charlot emerge responsively through different phases, exploring 'worlds' in which chaos and harmony meet and must agree somehow. Therefore, this intuitive organic process has to playfully alternate between contingency and control, roughness and refinement and free-form gestures versus precise detailing.
